

Programme specific outcome:

Sanskrit literature draws upon various fields of knowledge like History, Philosophy, Politics, Sociology, Vedic literature & Culture. After successfully completion of this Under Graduate General degree course students are able to achieve the following objects:-

1. Students are aware of ancient Indian History, Literature & literary criticism.
2. Grammar is very important part of this language to make a sentence, to know appropriate meaning of texts, oral communication & perfection.
3. Students learn about the Indian Philosophy, Religion & Culture in the Sanskrit tradition.
4. An academic analysis of Geeta helps them to develop their personality.
5. Ayurveda helps them to know about the Indian medical tradition.
6. Students also learn the concept of Nation & Nationalism through Sanskrit literature.
7. The students learn about the Yoga shastra as it is a part of their syllabus.
8. Students are able to frame correct sentences both in spoken and written forms.
9. Students receive advanced knowledge of ancient Indian religion, literature, and history through the study of Sanskrit texts.
10. Students will gain knowledge of the major traditions of literatures written in Sanskrit.
11. Translation of Sanskrit literature into Bengali and vice-versa