Report on organization of Anti-Ragging Awareness Drive held at Lilabati Mahavidyalaya

This is to inform you that Lilabati Mahavidyalaya has been organizing Anti-Ragging Awareness drives to sensitize the students regarding the harmful effects of ragging and the legal provisions in force against it. The programme has been conducted by the Women's Cell in collaboration with IQAC as part of the college's continued commitment to maintaining a safe, inclusive, and ragging-free campus.

The students, the teaching faculty and non- teaching along with the members of the Anti-Ragging Cell of the college actively participated in the programme. The college has been educating students about the government rules and regulations related to ragging, emphasizing that ragging is strictly prohibited and punishable under the law being the criminal offence,

The college has been highlighting the consequences of engaging in anti- ragging programmes, and the adverse impact it can have on the academic atmosphere and student well-being. Further, the students have been informed about the role and function of the Anti-Ragging Cell of the college, making them aware of the support and grievance mechanism available within the institution.

The college remains committed to spreading awareness among students and ensuring strict compliance with Anti-Ragging norms prescribed by the State and Central governments. Such programmes are regularly undertaken to build a campus culture based on dignity, discipline, mutual respect.

ACTION TAKEN REPORT

Programme on Anti-Ragging Awareness Drive

Date: 25th June 2026

Organised by: Women's Cell in collaboration with IQAC

Venue: College Auditorium, Lilabati Mahavidyalaya, Jateswar.

An Anti-Ragging Awareness Drive was successfully held on 25th June 2026 at Lilabati Mahavidyalaya under the initiative of the Women's Cell (ICC, Grievance, Anti-Ragging and Anti-Harassment) in collaboration with the IQAC. The programme was initiated by the Convenor of the Women's Cell and aimed to sensitize students about the evils of ragging, the legal provisions against it, and the institutional mechanism available at Lilabati Mahavidyalaya to address such issues.

The Principal of the college, Dr. Sushanta Kumar Roul delivered the inaugural address and spoke on the government rules and regulations related to ragging, emphasizing that ragging is strictly prohibited and punishable under law. The second speaker, Mr. Bijay Thapa, highlighted the serious consequences of anti-ragging violations and explained how such behaviour negatively affects the academic environment and student well-being. The third speaker, Ms. Sanghamitra Mookherjee, informed the students about the Anti-Ragging Cell of the college and explained its role in preventing and addressing ragging-related concerns.

The programme was hosted by Mrs. Pem Chheday Bhutia, who briefly summarized the proceedings and the key messages of the session. She concluded the programme with a vote of thanks to all the speakers, the participants, and the organizers for their active cooperation and presence. The programme was conducted smoothly and achieved its objective of creating awareness among students about maintaining a safe, respectful, and ragging-free campus.

Outcome: Students were made aware of the legal and institutional framework available against ragging. The role of the college Anti-Ragging Cell was communicated clearly to the students. The programme helped reinforce a culture of discipline, safety, and mutual respect in the campus community.

Awareness Program on Rules and Regulations of Ragging Prevention Activities

Organized by: Anti-Ragging Committee & IQAC, Lilabati Mahavidyalaya

Date: 18th August, 2025

An Awareness Program on "Rules and Regulations of Ragging Prevention Activities" was organized on 18th of August 2025 and 4th of September 2024 for the 3rd and 5th semester students and 1st semester students respectively. The programmes were scheduled in the Orientation Programme and Deeksharambh programme. The primary objectives of the events were to enlighten students about the legal provisions related to ragging, the consequences of ragging that one has to face and to foster a safe, respectful, and inclusive academic environment within the institution.

The program began with a welcome address by Mrs. P.C. Bhutia, Convenor of the Anti-Ragging Committee, who emphasized the significance of maintaining discipline and mutual respect among students. She highlighted the role of awareness in preventing any forms of misconduct and in creating a supportive campus culture.

Dr. Sushant Kumar Roul, Principal of Lilabati Mahavidyalaya, served as the chief speaker. In his insightful address, he elaborated on the legal implications and disciplinary measures concerning ragging as per UGC and Government of India guidelines. He also discussed the objectives and functioning of the Anti-Ragging Cell, underlining its commitment to ensuring student safety and welfare. Dr. Roul urged students to actively participate in maintaining a ragging-free campus and encouraged them to approach the committee without hesitation in case of any grievances or issues.

The session concluded with an open interaction where students shared their views and clarified doubts regarding anti-ragging laws and institutional support systems. The event successfully enhanced awareness and reinforced the institution's continuous efforts toward promoting a culture of respect, empathy, and harmony among its students.
